Originally from Israel, Nadav is currently finishing his studies at Florida State University's Jazz Studies program. Proficient in multiple styles, Nadav is especially dedicated to performing music within the Jazz idiom and the rich history of that tradition. He has performed throughout the southeast as well as in New York City. In tandem with his Jazz studies at Florida State, Nadav has also been studying a variety of other styles, performing with the University Symphony Orchestra, Salsa Seminole, and recently playing electric bass as part of a piece for Jazz Trio, Mezzo-Soprano and Orchestra composed by FSU Prof. Brian Gaber.
